

Professional statement outline

I am a motivated cybersecurity learner with strong analytical skills, fast learning ability, and a solid foundation in computer engineering. I value the protection of people and organizations through secure systems, and I am committed to developing the skills needed to identify threats, strengthen defenses, and support an organization's security goals.